

Key expert 1: Team Leader (440 days over 24 months all of which to be delivered within the Republic of Serbia)

Qualifications and skills

- University Degree (where the normal period of university education is at least three years) in Veterinary Medicine.
- Fluent in spoken and written (reading and writing) English.
- Excellent report writing skills

General professional experience

- 10 years professional experience since obtaining a qualification that complies with the requirement set out under Qualifications and Skills.

Specific professional experience

- Proven experience as a Team Leader for technical assistance projects financed from the general budget of the European Communities in the context of external actions.
- Proven experience in the establishment of Animal Identification and Registration Systems in accordance with the provisions of the acquis communautaire.
- Proven responsibility for ensuring that the implementation of an EU Member State's Animal Identification and Registration System is in accordance with the provisions of the acquis communautaire would be an advantage [although this is not a strict requirement].

Key expert 2: Long-Term Senior Animal Identification and Registration Expert (165 days over 24 months all of which to be delivered within the Republic of Serbia)

Qualifications and skills

- University Degree (where the normal period of university education is at least three years) in Veterinary Medicine.
- Fluent in spoken and written (reading and writing) English.

General professional experience

- 10 years professional experience since obtaining a qualification that complies with the requirement set out under Qualifications and Skills.

Specific professional experience

- Proven experience in the establishment of an Animal Identification and Registration System in accordance with the provisions of the acquis communautaire.
- Proven experience in auditing the implementation of an Animal Identification and Registration System in an EU Member State to verify that it is in accordance with the provisions of the acquis communautaire would be an advantage [although this is not a strict requirement].